2020

The Review Team will decide upon which sessions to hold by the middle of July. Everyone who submitted a proposal will be informed once the decision is taken. The chosen speakers will receive a free ticket for the Agile Tour Vienna 2020. Unfortunately, it is not possible to cover travel expenses or pay a speaking fee.

The conference takes place on 9 October 2020.
Submit your session here: https://www.conftool.pro/agile-tour-vienna-2020/

You must use the online Conftool to submit your proposal. However, to help you prepare your submission, we have an offline template which you can fill out, so that the submission only requires some copy and paste. (Download: Submission Template)

Talks or workshops should cover subjects from one of the following areas:

• Ten years of Agile Tour Vienna -
  How did it change your Development?
• Successful Technical Practicies
• Terrific Transformations
• Amazing Products
• Positiv Psychology of Agility
• Reach Out - Agile Beyond IT
• Business Agility

Possible session formats are:

• Classical Talk
• Interactive Session / Workshop
• Practice Report (Case Studies)
• Young Talent (details on page 2)

call for speakers.

In particular, we are looking for contributions involving customers and real-life case studies (the more state-of-the-art and experimental, the merrier – people who dare to try should be on stage).
The session length is 45 minutes this year! If your proposed session involves longer exercises or a special format, we can also offer you a 90-minutes slots.

for young talent only

Based on last years positive impressions, we will again have the special "young talent" format, which is dedicated to supporting young professionals hold their first session at a conference.

There are a specific set of requirements for submission to this format:

• You are under 30 years old
• This is your first presentation at a conference
• Your session is a classic talk or practitioner report

Before the conference:

• Feedback on your presentation, including the opportunity to work with a seasoned expert
• Individual coaching to prepare for your session
• Rehearsal possibility in front of a small audience to receive valuable comments and insights
